Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Engineering as a Profession With the advance In science and in tho arts our life and the things we do are becoming more and more complex. With the changes that will occur after the close of the war the demands will be much greater and new opportunities will open. To be able to meet the competition in business and industrial life, the young man of the future will need a much better preparation than can be obtained by a high-school course. In a recent article in the Independent. Judge Elbert H. Gary, Chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, makes the following comment on the value of the work of high grade technical and engineering schools: Their graduates have a highly specialized knowledge that Is immediately saleable, and if a young man can by any means obtain such a technical education I should say that he would be well-advised to do so. In fact, I believe that this kind of specialized training will in increasing measure become the quickest road to success in practical business of the future. The papers In this collection were first published In the Colorado Engineers Magazine, the quarterly publication of the engineering students of the University of Colorado. The aim In writing these articles was to give high-school students and college students an appreciation of the advantages to be gained from a college training, and to Impress them with their responsibilities In life. The papers were written at different times and there is therefore some duplication of Ideas. That the reading of these articles may give young men the courage to get an adequate preparation for life is the hope...
