D. degree could become members. Later, in June, 1887, Dr. N. S. Davis, Dr. W. W. Allport and myself drew up the following: Resolved, That the regular graduate of such dental and oral schools and colleges as require of their students a standard of preliminary or general education and a term of professional study equal to the best class of the medical colleges of this country, and embrace in their curriculum all the fundamental branches of medicine, differing by substituting practical and clinical instruction in dental and oral medicine and surgery, be recognized as members of the regular profession of medicine and eligible to membership in this Association, on the same conditions and subject to the same regulations as other members. While this practically recognized the D. D. S. degree, yet the wording of this resolution was so ambiguous that every...
