GENESIS RELOADED: QUESTIONING A LITERAL INTERPRETATION OF THE BIBLE

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 460 pages. Dimensions: 9.6in. x 7.4in. x 1.0in. Why does the Bible contain stories implying that the world is flat if God really knows that it is round? How could millions of creatures fit onto an ark that was only half as big as a modern-day cruise ship? And who created evil as an option, if not God Himself? Those are among the many questions explored in Genesis Reloaded: Questioning a Literal Interpretation of the Bible. In the book, acclaimed law professor Fred Galves leads readers on a provocative journey to reconcile literal interpretations of the Bible with provable fact and spiritual conjecture. Because people sometimes have difficulty believing in a literal interpretation of the Bible, they often wonder whether the Bible as written is true. Going beyond the classic debate between atheistic critics and evangelical literalists, Genesis Reloaded blends rational thought, spiritual beliefs, and personal anecdotes to investigate the fascinating paradox between religious faith and scientific rationality. Fred Galves is a 1986 graduate of Harvard Law School and has been a law professor at Pacific McGeorge School of Law since 1993. He currently teaches: Evidence, Civil Procedure, Computer-Assisted Litigation, and Street Law. He also writes and lectures on the use of technology in the practice of law. Galves is an Evidence casebook coauthor and has written several law review articles. Galves has done human rights work in Chile with the Catholic Church and was a teaching fellow in Principles of Economics at Harvard College. Galves was a judicial clerk for Judge John L. Kane Jr. and later practiced law with the Denver firm of Holland and Hart. He was a visiting political science professor at Colorado College and has been a visiting law professor at the University of California at Davis School...
