In all records in Latin it is called camera stellata. The Council itself, whether Parliament was ssembled or not, held its sittings in the Starred Chamber, situated in the outermost quadrangle of the Palace, next the bank of the river, and consequently easily accessible to the suitors, and which at length was permanently appropriated to the use of the Council. The Lords sitting in the Starre Chamber became a phrase. Lord Bacon, in his History of King Henry VII., thus writes of the origin, authority, composition, and jurisdiction of this court: The authority of the Star Chamber, which before subsisted by the ancient common laws of the realm, was confirmed in certain cases by Act of Parliament. This Court is one of the sages and noblest institutions of this kingdom....
