Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Army Rifles: A Paper Read Before the Ohio Commandery of the Loyal Legion, February 5, 1908 The events of the past ten years, particularly the Spanish and Japanese Wars and the present cruise of our great fleet have aroused in the American people an interest in modern implements and methods of warfare, such as has not been in evidence since the dark days of our great Civil War. We are essentially a peace-loving Nation. There is probably no Great Power in the world whose soldiers and sailors are so rarely seen upon the streets, and yet there is a latent military spirit in the people, which long years of peace and prosperity cannot eliminate. So in these latter years, since our power has reached out into the four corners of the earth, and met and clashed with that of other nations, that spirit has manifested itself in a widespread interest in our army and navy, and their equipment and fitness to protect our national honor. Our attention having thus been attracted to military armaments, possibly...
