Excerpt: .worthy to hold membership in a Chapter by his Companions, he is eligible to the office of High Priest, and if elected, and expresses willingness to assume the vows, obligations and responsibilities imposed by our installation services, he should be installed. The object of this explanation is to emphasize the observance of that principle, and to enforce it by precept and example as much as possible, that our lives, conduct and conversation should ever be in line with our professions as Masons. So far, so good. But why is he not charged, and, if found guilty, expelled, as he ought to be? How can such a man be a Mason? 2. Ques. Which is the proper time for approving the minutes of a regular Convocation of the Chapter, the night on which it is held or at the following regular meeting? Ans. The minutes...
