Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Alabama Girls Industrial School Bulletin Legislative, 1909 What the Alabama Girls Industrial School stands for is so well known that it is superfluous to do more than call attention to the three articles printed herein: Domestic Art and Science in Secondary Education read by Miss Stephens and The Scope of Industrial Arts in our Public Schools by Mr. Chesnutt at the 1908 Montgomery meeting of the Alabama Educational Association, and Domestic Science in the Secondary Schools by Miss Franklin at the 1909 meeting in Birmingham. Young women planning to attend the Alabama Girls Industrial School should give careful attention to the courses offered as indicated in the catalog. The work of the institution is that of the High School and to enter its Freshman class, the applicant should first complete all the subjects taught in a well arranged grammar school and be able to speak and write the English language clearly and correctly with reference to the structure of both sentence and paragraph; should know the leading facts of United States History; and should be proficient in practical Arithmetic through Percentage. The additions to the dormitory have more than doubled its capacity for boarding students, affording room without undue crowding for all who have come this session. The attendance has increased more than ten per cent over that of last year. A corresponding increase next year will fill the present building to overflowing; hence the necessity for applying early, in order to be sure of securing a room. Being supplied with modern conveniences, steam heat, electric lights, hot and cold water under pressure, splendid ventilation, numerous exits and fire escapes, this dormitory is unsurpassed in...
