But mdng all plans, and schemes, and motions, Some strongly plead the following notions: --To forward this our union bustle Let all that s young or strong in muscle, Be roused to shake each limb and finger, And not around these shores to linger; But? search the states, and run all chances, From Maine to far beyond Arkansas: There s ploughing, felling, fencing, digging, But here to live requires low begging. In ourfar-fam d and blest interior, No Boss is known, nor proud superior; Nor cold nor hunger ever pinches, But all live there like noble princes. Here, all is forc d, and quite extraneous: There, food and clothes grow up spontaneous Here we who live by shuttle clicking, All fast in mis ry s slough are sticking; And how our case Fate shall dispose it, No earthly shape among us knows it. Thus down.life s stream altho we re drifting, And oft the piteous signal...
