Excerpt: . . . 11 successfully negotiated for a rate which resulted in annual pay-ments of less than 3. 5 percent of export earnings. Currently, Mo-zambique, one of the worlds poorest countries, pays over 20 per-cent of export earnings in debt service. To require African nations to compete in a global economy burdened with this debt is like throwing a person into the deep end of the pool with a ton of weights chained to their ankles. Second, self-determination. The HOPE for Africa Act is premised on the goals developed by African finance ministers, in cooperation with the Organization for African Unity. Thus, the HOPE for Afri-ca Act states a new U. S. policy toward Africa based on the recogni-tion that economic development must be measured by the well-being of the majority of the people and oriented toward following those goals. Strengthening diversity of Africas...
