Excerpt: .be included pills, capable of acting powerfully, for natives who had over-gorged themselves. Healing ointments, for outward application, would, with sticking-plaster and lint, be of real service, as a great many of the natives suffer from skiu diseases. During our stay at the village, on October 30th and 31st, and on the 1st November, a thaw set in; the thermometer standing at points between-f-32 and-j-35 Fahr., and the wind south. Snow also fell. On the 2nd, Dall and Francis returned to Unalachelet, with the hope of recovering our dogs, several more of whom had left our service. Many of them had been borrowed from the Indian village, and very naturally preferred their lazy life there, to hard work with us. I saw no dogs in Russian America equal to the picked teams in Petropaulovski; but they had been selected from the best breeds of...
