Lanie Dills, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Episodes 1, 2, 3, and 4 of McKenzie Stone s exciting new lesbian drama fiction series is now available in a single book. The haunting story takes Mandy, the protagonist, from the very bosom of the church to a lesbian relationship, to being chased by the FBI for kidnapping, to the shelter of the unofficial lesbian underground. This book includes the following episodes: EPISODE 1: Mandy Blackwood is a product of a strict upbringing in the Eudora Southern Baptist Church. A church steeped in taboos against almost everything, but especially against homosexuality. She has been brought up to make her mother proud - marry, have children, and bring no shame on the family. As was expected of her, Mandy marries in the church, adopts a baby boy, and then suddenly meets her destiny, Kathleen Crutchfield. EPISODE 2: Mandy walks a tight rope between heaven and hell as she struggles to live with her husband Scott just long enough for their son s adoption to go through. Then she can get a divorce from her cruel husband and she and Kathleen, the real love of her life, can take the boy and move to a big city where they can be free of Scott, their Southern Baptist families, and the self-righteous community where they live. EPISODE 3: Kathleen s mother boldly unveils a cruel, insane plan that would separate Kathleen and Mandy forever. Now utterly alone and the only sane person left to fight for their relationship, Mandy vows to wait for sick Kathleen regardless of how long it takes. She experiences, first hand, the clout of the good ole boy system, which conspires together with her husband...
