Now the hour hath come, and the Babe is born, And our hope-filled hearts beat high and fast; For we know this is Joy s supremest hour, And this time of grace cannot always last. Let us haste away to the manger crib, To lay our hearts at the Infant s feet, To place our hopes in the Mother s hands, And unite in the mystic scene so sweet. Let us shrink not back from the midnight air, But joyfully follow the shepherds afar: We will keep within pace of the Orient band, And steadily walk in the trail of the star.
