AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 308 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. What if you had no memory of what happened to you in a 24 hour period. For Carole Belleser, a 17 years old high school student, it is as though 11161971 never existed for her. She has no knowledge of anything that happened between Thursday night and Saturday morning. Something must have happened because three months later, she discovers to her amazement that she is pregnant. The problem is, she has never had sex. She goes to the police and they don't believe her because in 1971, the police have never heard of date rape drugs. This begins Carole's pregnancy from hell where her father feels she is concealing the name of the father and her schoolmates laugh at her for her immaculate conception. Five years later, Carole, a single mom, has achieved some success working at The Fair Store. Here she meets Charley Bear, a full-blooded Navaho Indian, who is her boss. Carole, scared to death of him, soon learns he is a teddy bear with her. Her daughter, Rebecca, is soon calling him Uncle Charley. In a world-wide courtship, they are married in a...
